The Grenfell Tower Tragedy – Could it Happen Here?
Could the AEC activities that contributed to Grenfell occur in the US?

Presenter: Christopher Bucci, MSCE, PE,
Director of Technical Services, Laminators, Inc.

This course will explore the publicly available facts related to what happened at Grenfell Tower in London, England, during the fire in 2017, the AEC contributing activities during the renovation, and the parallels to AEC activities that commonly occur on North American projects that could contribute to a similar outcome here in the U.S.

President's Message

Chapter Members,

Chris has set-up a timely and interesting tour for us this month. Just as the weather is getting chilly, we can enjoy the potential warmth of glass manufacturing, and learn some things in the process.

Learning opportunities will continue into next year. Not only can CSI members take advantage of all our monthly meetings have to offer, but CDT classes will be coming back early next year. Even if you're not planning to get your CDT, these classes offer interesting information about construction documentation and the CD process, offered by a variety of experts in various construction fields.

Finally, it will be election time before we know it. For CSI, you don't have to make your way to the polls or stand in line. You can cast your vote on-line. In order to have successful elections and a successful chapter, we need people who are willing to participate in the Chapter. We have an immediate need for a Vice-President. If you can spare an hour or two a month, you can make a difference in supporting your CSI chapter. If you're not up to being Vice-President, just start out on a committee and get your feet wet. Anyone is welcome at the board meetings, so attend one and find out what would be a good fit. Hope to see you there!

Kathryn Sterner

Central PA CSI Chapter President
