A Winning Bridge Design

6:00-6:30 p.m. Meet-and-Greet Networking with All Attendees
6:30-7:30 p.m. Live Technical Program

Hunter Ruthrauff of T.Y. Lin International, San Diego, CA, will present his 2021 AISC Forge Prize-winning design for a 3D-printed steel pedestrian bridge, extending approximately 1,000 feet east-west across the Florida Canyon in San Diego's Balboa Park. Meeting format will be a presentation on Zoom followed by discussion between Hunter and attendees on the aesthetic and technical concepts of the bridge design.

Ruthrauff's design draws on Spanish-inspired architecture in the adjacent Prado, local flora, and the nearby Cabrillo Bridge. The bridge's organic form reflects the network of trails in Florida Canyon. The bridge's deck offers uninterrupted views and some unconventional public space consisting of large hammocks over four apertures that look down onto the canyon. The project would take advantage of the unconventional shapes possible with 3D-printed structural steel.

This program will be submitted to AIA CES for 1 LU continuing education. Continuing education certificates will be available to all attendees, issued by email following the meeting.

The Forge Prize competition (www.forgeprize.com) was established in 2018 by the American Institute of Steel Construction (AISC) to recognize visionary emerging architects for designs that embrace steel as a primary structural component and capitalize on steel's ability to increase a project's speed.

TO REGISTER for this FREE program and receive the Zoom URL link, email our host, Ken Robinson at kbrpe@kbraengineering.com no later than 3:00 p.m. on June 08.

The chapter meeting will be preceded by the CPC CSI Board meeting from 5:00 to 6:00 p.m. All CPC CSI members are welcome to attend (if so, please note when you register for the program).

President's Message

Chapter Members,

"Life is a series of natural and spontaneous changes. Don't resist them; that only creates sorrow. Let reality be reality. Let things flow naturally forward in whatever way they like." — Lao Tzu

"Incredible change happens in your life when you decide to take control of what you do have power over instead of craving control over what you don't." — Steve Maraboli, Life, the Truth, and Being Free

Our CSI year is ending and we are looking forward to the next. Starting in September we will be resuming face to face meetings and programs. But not just in person events, we are seeking to expand our offerings to include virtual and possibly even combined meeting that will be available live and broadcast virtually. Even before then we are pulling together a Summer Ball Game Social as we have had these previous years and possibly a golf outing.

Make sure to join us for our June program, Hunter Ruthrauff, 2021 AISC Forge Prize Winning Entry – Pedestrian Bridge Concept w/ "3D Printed" Steel.

Directors Reports:

No reports

New Business:

1)Minutes from April – approved with no changes

2)Jeff Snyder looked in the York Revolution - $14 field box or $34 catered (no alcohol), we can not park at Warehouse because they moved.

Old Business:

1)When will we be doing in person events? Location? Mixed between in person and virtual?

2)Charlie said we should be good to start in September. Chris will look into the new hotel by his office but it may not have restaurant. Maybe get it catered? But if it doesn't have a bar it may be challenging too. – Board agreed we can start in person this September

3)Paul Hertzler mentioned about rotating locations to help membership. Kathryn mentioned about keeping the board meetings virtual on another date?

4)Rich Forsberg mentioned about doing a video of an in-person meeting so more can join. Eric pointed out some questions like – is there good Wi-Fi? Do we want to record it?

5)We will start looking into #3 and #4 and talk again next meeting

6)Credit Card Options – Eric set up a stripe account and needs to get together with Bill B and work out some stuff. Eric used the same email as the chapter mailings. Eric also sent a message to our webmaster about integrating this on our website but he has not heard back yet.
